

Quick and Handy Grammar Review cont.

A. Common Prepositions cont.

Preposition	Meaning(s)	Examples
before	earlier in time	• Before breakfast, I took a walk. • I would like to finish before noon. • The movie ended before 10:00.
behind	in back of	• I hid the bag behind the couch. • Nestor was standing right behind me.
below	under	• The bag is below the desk. • The temperature is 11 degrees below zero.
beneath	under, lower in status	• The dog was sleeping beneath the table. • Do you think that working for that company is beneath you?
beside	next to	• I stood beside Mr. Johnson. • The chair is beside the table.
besides	in addition to	• Besides John, Jane and Alicia are going.
between	in the middle of (two things or people)	• The blue car is between the red and the white ones. • I was sitting between Toshiko and Nabuko.
beyond	more than, farther than	• Ines became rich beyond her wildest dreams. • Xavier looked beyond the blue horizon.
by	near, ownership, method	• Patrick lives by the sea. • That book was written by Harlan Cobin. • I sent the letter by mail.
despite	contrast	• Despite the rain, we still had a picnic.
down	opposite of up	• She ran down the hill. • The cat went down the stairs.
during	in progress	• There was a terrible storm during the night. • During the movie, Carl ate two bags of popcorn.
for	intended recipient, purpose	• This gift is for Helga. • I'm taking this course for my degree.