

CONFUSED WORDS: THOUGH, THOUGHT AND THROUGH

THOUGH	THOUGHT	THROUGH
Though means “although.” It rhymes with blow , toe , and no .	Thought is the past tense of think, and it also means that which a person thinks: his thought. It rhymes with bought , taught , and fought .	Through is used with reference to moving inside of, or by means of. It also means “done with”: Let’s go through Minneapolis. I am through with love. Through sounds exactly like threw, which is the past tense of throw: He threw the cat out. Through and threw rhyme with blue, two, and knew.

In the following sentences fill in the blanks with though, thought, or through.

1. Bobby _____ he could write the paper in two hours, but it took two weeks instead.
2. Mother functioned well _____ the funeral, and then she collapsed.
3. To get to my grandmother’s house you have to go _____ the woods.
4. Our country is going _____ a recession _____ it’s not going fast enough for some people.
5. The soup looked delicious _____ it had a strange aftertaste.
6. We _____ winter was _____, but we woke up to find snow on the ground.
7. Success is said to come _____ hard work and determination.
8. Nobody should walk _____ that park alone at night.
9. The dress was very fancy _____ though in poor taste.
10. I never _____ Mark would wear a suit and tie.

Write one sentence using the word though:

Write one sentence using the word thought:

Write one sentence using the word through:
