

Finding One's Way Around on the Space Station!

There are many shelves, or 'racks,' in the Destiny Lab on the Space Station. They can be used to hold experiments and research projects. Astronaut Ruby needs to find her way through all of the racks in the Destiny Lab so she can do her research at the rack at the end of the maze. Can you show her how to get to her experiment's rack?

Are you ready to tackle an even bigger challenge? Go to the next page and help a crew member aboard the Space Station get back inside after a space walk!
